

Preparing for Racial Justice Sunday (February 2021)

In January, as part of ensuring we are inclusive in being anti-racist, the Church is asking you to read "Why I'm no longer talking to white people about race" by Reni Eddo-Lodge.

Sunday services will be looking at Racial Justice during February.

The book is available free as an audio book from www.audible.co.uk when you take out a free trial, or from Birmingham Library (online as an e-book or in print when the library is open) though it is popular, so request it as soon as possible.

Recycling Christmas Cards

Dharma, who many know as a Fairtrade Shop Volunteer, would like your used Christmas cards for festive crafts next Autumn/Winter. We cannot give them to her for a while, so if you are able to, please put them aside for her and we will make arrangements for her to collect them from church later in the year.

SPICY TOMATO AND BEAN SOUP

Winter Warmer Recipe supplied by Traidcraft's friends at Just Trading Scotland

INGREDIENTS

- 2 tins of chopped tomatoes
- 2 tins of red kidney beans, drained and rinsed
- 500ml chicken stock
- 2 garlic cloves
- crushed juice of one large lemon
- 2 tablespoons of Meru Herbs
- Hot Chilli Pesto

METHOD

1. Put the tomatoes, beans and stock in a food processor (in batches if necessary) and pulse briefly until coarsely chopped but not smooth.
2. Transfer into a saucepan and add the crushed garlic, lemon juice and hot chilli pesto and heat to just below boiling.
3. Thin with boiling water if necessary. Season, then serve.

Please note, the Chilli Pesto is hot! Use less or more to suit your taste.

Plea for help!

The Church at Carrs Lane does not have a volunteer to take on the minuting of our monthly Church Meetings which take place on the 3rd Sunday of the month. Recently the meetings have been on Zoom.

It is not a huge task as the meetings are not long. Minutes are sent to the chair of the meeting for checking and then to the clerk for distribution.

Please contact Cristina, Neil, or Lindsay (clerk to the trustees) if you feel called to help in this way in 2021!
