

Preparing for Racial Justice Sunday (February 2021)

In January, as part of ensuring we are inclusive in being anti-racist, the Church is asking you to read "Why I'm no longer talking to white people about race" by Reni Eddo-Lodge.

Sunday services will be looking at Racial Justice during February.

The book is available free as an audio book from www.audible.co.uk when you take out a free trial, or from Birmingham Library (online as an e-book or in print when the library is open) though it is popular, so request it as soon as possible.

#Pray24Brum: 22-23 January 2021

Every January for the last few years, #Pray24Brum has brought together Christians to pray for our city. During the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, #Pray24Brum provides an opportunity for Christians of different traditions to witness to our unity as we pray together for Birmingham.

Recycling Christmas Cards

Dharma, who many know as a Fairtrade Shop Volunteer, would like your used Christmas cards for festive crafts next Autumn/Winter. We cannot give them to her for a while, so if you are able to, please put them aside for her and we will make arrangements for her to collect them from church later in the year.

TRAIDCRAFT

The one stop shop for all things fair trade, sustainable and ethical.

Up to 70% off while stocks last on a huge range of fair trade food, drink and crafts.

Could you help?

Could you take notes once a month at the Sunday Church Meeting? The Church at Carrs Lane needs a volunteer for the coming year. Church Meetings take place on the 3rd Sunday of the month (recently, on Zoom).

It is not a huge task as the meetings are not long. Minutes are sent to the chair of the meeting for checking and then to the clerk for distribution.

Please contact Cristina, Neil, or Lindsay (clerk to the trustees) if you are able to offer your help!

During the current lockdown, church is not open for worship in person
